

Jood A. AlDaffaa

Associate, Riyadh, Saudi Arabia

T +966 11 202 0344

M +966 55 290 1313

jaldaffaa@talawksa.com

Practice Focus

- Corporate
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Corporate Governance
- Litigation
- Incorporations

Education

- Prince Sultan University, L.L.B. Commercial Track, 2021
- St. Mary's College, 2015

Languages

- Arabic
- English

Jood is an associate and a transactional lawyer in our corporate practice specialising in a variety of corporate matters including mergers and acquisition, foreign investments, incorporations and reorganisations, corporate governance, capital markets, and litigation.

Academically, Jood has a Bachelors Degree in Commercial Law from Prince Sultan University, along with various certificates and courses in Law from University College London. Jood also had both her A Levels and GCSEs from schools in the UK.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Conducting legal due diligence in relation to M&A deals.
- Drafting and reviewing transactions documents such as shareholders' agreements and sales purchase agreements.
- Advising and assisting in national and international disputes.
- Advising and assisting companies in their external transactions and internal structuring.
- Advising and assisting with processes of establishment and incorporation of foreign companies in Saudi Arabia.
- Advising and assisting several international companies, in various structuring matters in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.
- Drafting and reviewing various government contracts.
- Representation in connection with various set-ups and incorporations of joint-ventures between foreign and local partners in the GCC.
- Advising numerous of Saudi and foreign companies in connection with various matters including corporate, commercial, and labor matter.
- Advising and assisting in Corporate Governance and Board Secretary.